

Experiential Workshop

Title	The meaning of and dealing with the scapegoat phenomenon in Adventure Therapy programs
Goals	Understanding the mechanism and reason of scapegoating and being able to locate it in a group context an culture. Providing some ideas how to deal with it.
Description	Cabeza de turco, bouc émissaire, bünbak, zondebok, blorabôgglar, kabsh alfada', capro espiatorio, sündenbock, syndebukk. ... It seems that the scapegoat 'phenomenon' is a universal one. In this workshop we'll explore how it comes alive in an Adventure therapy context, what it tells us about group norms, culture and developmental tasks and how we can deal with it in a satisfying way.
Number of participants	Minimum	2,5
	Maximum	25
About the facilitator...	Name	Luk Peeters
	Background	Luk has been working in the Experiential Outdoor setting since 1985. He is a Gestalt and Cliënt-centered psychotherapist with specializations in existential, group, emotional-focused and adventure therapy and works as a self-employed process-facilitator.